

Terms of Service

The Conqueror and My Virtual Mission are owned and operated by Actionary Ltd, a limited liability company registered in New Zealand with the NZBN 9429042333289 (Actionary, we, us, or our).

These Terms of Service (Terms) apply to your access and use of the My Virtual Mission and/or Conqueror website (currently www.myvirtualmission.com and www.theconqueror.events) (the Websites), software, application, products and services (all together, the Services). The Services include the providing of fitness challenges.

Where you are using the services as part of an organisation or group (including if you are invited to join a mission by a mission admin):

- a) section 19 specifies how these Terms apply to the organisation or group;
- b) “you” refers to your organisation or group unless the context requires otherwise; and
- c) all individuals in the organisation or group who access the Services must still comply with these Terms as users.

You must accept these Terms in order to register with us and receive any Services (including taking part in any of our fitness challenges).

These Terms are a legally binding contract between you and us.

1. Use of our Services

You must not use or access our Services if you are under the age of 16, unless your parent, guardian or caregiver has consented in accordance with applicable law. Where these Terms prohibit you from doing something you must also not attempt to do it or encourage or assist others in doing it while accessing or using the Services.

2. Creating an Account

Use of our Services requires that you create an account by providing us with information such as your full name and a valid email address, as well as a strong password. You must keep your account credentials confidential (you must not share your login details). You are responsible for all activity that occurs in association with your account. Please contact privacy@myvirtualmission.com if you discover or suspect any security breach related to the Services or your account.

3. Children

Use of Actionary services by children under the age of 16 is predicated upon the child's guardian reading and agreeing to the Conqueror Privacy Notice, thus providing a record of consent for the child to participate in Conqueror Challenges. Consent can be withdrawn at any time, and all information held by the Conqueror relating to the child can be deleted or corrected upon request.

Content posted by a child, or relating to children, posted in Conqueror Teams or Communities cannot be repurposed or reposted elsewhere in any form.

The child's guardian is responsible for monitoring appropriate use of the Conqueror services, and associated activities in Teams or Communities. Actionary is not responsible for the child's use of Conqueror services and other associated products.

4. Privacy

For information about our data practices, please see our Privacy Notice which sets out the personal information that we collect and our use of the information and our Data Processing Agreement (where that applies).

5. Child Privacy

Children under the age of 16 can use our services, and we will not ask a child to disclose more information than is reasonably necessary to participate in an activity.

On registration to our service, children under the age of 16 are required to confirm that:

- a. They have the consent of a parent/guardian to use our services.
- b. Their parent/guardian has read and agreed to our Privacy Notice.

The following restrictions are applied to children's accounts:

- a. Privacy settings default to private so that no other users can view or interact with the child's profile or activity.

- b. Privacy can be changed to 'restricted' so only users who are in a team or community with the child can see the child's information and activity.
- c. Privacy cannot be set to public, so users who are not in a team or community with the child are unable to see any information, or activity, of that child.
- d. Children can only join private communities which are password protected.

5.1. Marketing

Information collected about children is not used for marketing purposes.

5.2. Your Rights as a Parent/Guardian

21. Disclaimers

The information, software, products, services and content available through the services are provided to you “as is” and without warranty. Actionary and its subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, employees, agents, partners and licensors hereby disclaim all warranties with regard to such information, software, products, services and content, including, without limitation, all implied warranties and conditions of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, title and non-infringement. Actionary and its subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, employees, agents, partners and licensors make no warranty that: (a) the service will meet your requirements; (b) your content will be available or the service will be uninterrupted, timely, secure or error-free; (c) the results that may be obtained from the use of the service will be accurate or reliable; (d) the quality of any products, services, information or other material purchased or obtained by you through the service will meet your expectations; and (e) any errors in the services will be corrected.

You expressly agree that Actionary is not providing medical advice via the services. The content provided through the services, including all text, photographs, images, illustrations, graphics, audio, video and audio-video clips, and other materials, whether provided by us or by other account holders or third parties is not intended to be and should not be used in place of medical or health advice. You should never disregard medical advice or delay in seeking medical advice because of any content presented on the services, and you should not use the services or any content on the services for diagnosing or treating a health problem.

You expressly agree that your athletic activities carry certain inherent and significant risks of property damage, bodily injury or death and that you voluntarily assume all known and unknown risks associated with these activities even if caused in whole or part by the action, inaction or negligence of Actionary or by the action, inaction or negligence of others.

Actionary's maximum aggregate liability to you arising out of, or in connection with, these terms or from the use of or inability to use the services shall not exceed the greater of the amount you have paid to Actionary for use of the services in the 12-months prior to the date of the claim or one hundred US dollars (USD$100).

Actionary is not liable for any indirect, special, incidental, or consequential damages arising out of, or in any way connected with, this agreement or the services or any costs of delay, loss or inaccuracy of data or information or loss of profits, even if it knows of the possibility of such damage or loss.

The exclusions and limitations of damages set out above are fundamental elements of the basis of the bargain between us.

If the exclusion or limitation of liability for consequential or incidental damages is excluded by law, Actionary's total liability arising out of or in connection with these terms or from the use of or inability to use the services will be the amounts you have paid to Actionary for use of the service.

22. Indemnity

You will indemnify and hold Actionary or its officers, directors, employees, affiliates, agents, licensors, and contractors harmless from and against any claims, suits, actions, demands, disputes, allegations, or investigations brought by any third party, governmental authority, or industry body, and all liabilities, damages, losses, costs, and expenses, including without limitation reasonable attorneys' fees, arising out of or in any way connected with (a) your access to or use of the Services, (b) Your Content, (c) your violation of these Terms, or (d) your violation of any law or the rights of a third-party. We reserve the right to assume control of the defence of any third-party claim that is subject to indemnification by you, in which event you will cooperate with us in asserting any available defences.

23. Dispute Resolution

You agree that any action at law or in equity arising out of or relating to these Terms or your access to or use of the Services will be filed only in New Zealand courts and you irrevocably and unconditionally consent and submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of such courts over any suit, action or proceeding. These Terms and the resolution of any disputes shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of New Zealand without regard to its conflict of laws principles.

The parties shall use their best efforts to settle any dispute, claim, question, or disagreement directly through good-faith negotiations, as a precondition to either party initiating arbitration. Any claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement and your use of the Services shall be finally settled by binding arbitration administered by JAMS in accordance with its provisions and procedures for consumer-related disputes, excluding any rules or procedures governing or permitting class actions. The arbitrator, and not any court or agency, shall have exclusive authority to resolve all disputes arising out of or relating to this Agreement. The arbitrator shall be empowered to grant whatever relief would be available in a court, provided, however, that the arbitrator will not have authority to award damages, remedies, or awards that conflict with this Agreement. The arbitrator's award shall be binding on the parties and may be entered as a judgment in any court of competent jurisdiction. Both of us expressly waive trial by jury.

You may only resolve disputes with Actionary on an individual basis, and may not bring a claim as a plaintiff or a class member in a class, consolidated, or representative action.

The United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods and the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act shall not apply to these Terms.

Subject to applicable laws, you agree that any claim you may have arising out of or related to your relationship with Actionary and these Terms must be filed within one year after such claim arose, otherwise, your claim is permanently barred.

24. Use by Organisation

Where an organisation including a club, school, business or non-profit, uses the Services:

- a. an authorized representative of that organization must agree to these terms;
- b. the organisation must ensure that its users comply with these Terms and Actionary's reasonable directions in relation to the Services;

- c. the organisation is responsible for all content posted to the Services by its users and must monitor and moderate such content;
- d. the organisation agrees to indemnify and hold Actionary harmless from any and all claims arising out of use of the Services by the organisation, including but not limited to claims of infringing content; and
- e. the organisation must notify Actionary if it may have more than 1000 users. For clarity, the liability provisions in section 18 (Disclaimers) apply to the organisation in relation to the use of the Services.

25. Data Processing Agreement

The Actionary Data Processing Agreement applies to the extent that Actionary is processing personal data in the course of performing the Services and applicable law requires there to be a data processing agreement in place or we otherwise agree it will apply.

26. Additional Terms

Our Terms of Sale apply to purchases of any physical goods that we may offer. Additional Actionary terms may apply to certain products or services including surveys, contests, giveaways, and other promotions (we will notify you where such additional terms apply). If you access our application through either the App Store or Google Play, additional terms may be notified (and if so, will apply) to your access to the Services. Where they apply, such Actionary additional terms including the Terms of Sale are incorporated into and made part of these Terms.

No terms or conditions proposed by a customer or a user will be incorporated into these Terms or will apply to the supply of the Services, even if at some later date Actionary signs or otherwise purports to accept them. Where a mission admin or an organisation or group specifies or requires its users of the Services to agree to different terms to these Terms, including terms specific to a particular mission, such terms do not apply to Actionary or our supply of the Services and are not part of the contract between us and you.

27. Feedback

If you submit comments, ideas, or feedback to us, you agree that we can use, disclose, reproduce, distribute, and exploit them without any restriction or compensation to you. We do not waive any rights to use similar or related ideas or feedback previously known to us, developed by Actionary, or obtained from sources other than you.

28. General Terms

Except as otherwise stated, these Terms constitute the entire and exclusive understanding and agreement between Actionary and you regarding the Services, and these Terms supersede and replace any and all prior oral or written understandings or agreements between Actionary and you regarding the Services.

We may modify these Terms at any time and such modification will be effective when the new Terms are loaded onto the website.

If for any reason a court of competent jurisdiction finds any provision of these Terms invalid or unenforceable, that provision will be enforced to the maximum extent permissible and the other provisions of these Terms will remain in full force and effect.

You may not assign, delegate, or transfer these Terms, by operation of law or otherwise, without Actionary's prior written consent. Any attempt by you to assign or transfer these Terms, without such consent, will be null. Actionary may freely assign or transfer these Terms without restriction. Subject to the foregoing, these Terms will bind and inure to the benefit of the parties, their successors, and permitted assigns.

Any notices or other communications provided by Actionary under these Terms, including those regarding modifications to these Terms, will be given: (i) via email or (ii) by posting to the Services. For notices made by e-mail, the date of receipt on the message will be deemed the date on which such notice is transmitted.

The words "includes" and "including" in these Terms are deemed to mean "including without limitation".

Nothing expressed or implied in these Terms will be deemed to constitute either party as the partner, agent, or joint venturer of the other party.

Actionary's failure to enforce any right or provision of these Terms will not be considered a waiver of such right or provision. The waiver of any such right or provision will be effective only if in writing and signed by a duly authorized representative of Actionary. Except as expressly set forth in these Terms, the exercise by either party of any of its remedies under these Terms will be without prejudice to its other remedies under these Terms or otherwise.
